MINISTRY OF LAW

(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 11th May, 1965/Vaisakha, 21, 1887 (Saka)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 11th May, 1965, and is hereby published for general information:—

THE FINANCE ACT, 1965

No. 10 OF 1965

[11th May, 1965].

An Act to give effect to the financial proposals of the Central Government for the financial year 1965-66.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Finance Act, 1965.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, sections 3 to 67 and Short title 69 to 74 shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of April, 1965, and section 68 shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of March, 1965.

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3), (4) and Income-tax, for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1965, income-tax shall be charged at the rates specified in Part I of the First Schedule and, in the cases to which Paragraphs A, B, C and D of that Part apply, shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union calculated in either case in the manner provided therein.

(2) In making any assessment for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1965, where the total income of an assessee, not being a company, includes any income chargeable under the head "Salaries", the income-tax payable by the assessee on that part of his total income which consists of such inclusion shall be an amount bearing to the total amount of income-tax and super-tax payable according to the rates applicable under the operation of the Finance Act, 1964, on his total income the same proportion as the amount of such inclusion bears to his total income.

5 of 1964

(3) In making any assessment for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1965, where the total income of a company, other than the Life Insurance Corporation of India established under the Life Insurance Corporation Act, 1956, includes any profits and gains from life insurance business, the income-tax payable by it shall be the aggregate of the income-tax calculated -

31 of 1958.

(i) on the amount of profits and gains from life insurance business so included, at the rate applicable to the Life Insurance Corporation of India in accordance with Paragraph E of Part I of the First Schedule; and

(ii) on the remaining part of its total income, at the rate applicable to the company on its total income.

(4) In cases to which Chapter XII of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the Income-tax Act) applies, the tax chargeable shall be determined as provided in that Chapter, and with reference to the rates imposed by sub-section (1) or the rates as specified in that Chapter, as the case may be.

43 of 1961.

(5) (a) In respect of any assessment for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1965—

(i) an assessee being an Indian company or any other company which has made the prescribed arrangements for the declaration and payment of dividends within India or an assessee (other than a company) whose total income includes any profits and gains derived from the export of any goods or merchandise out of India, shall be entitled to a deduction, from the amount of income-tax with which he is chargeable, of an amount equal to the income-tax calculated at one-tenth of the average rate of income-tax on the amount of such profits and gains included in the total income;

(ii) where an assessee of the type referred to in sub-clause (i) engaged in the manufacture of any articles in an industry specified in the First Schedule to the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951, has during the previous year exported such articles out of India, he shall be entitled, in addition to the deduction of income-tax referred to in sub-clause (i), to a further deduction, from the amount of income-tax with which he is chargeable for the assessment year, of an amount equal to the income-tax calculated at the average rate of income-tax on an amount equal to two per cent. of the sale proceeds receivable by him in respect of such export;

(iii) where an assessee of the type referred to in sub-clause (i) engaged in the manufacture of any articles in an industry specified in the said First Schedule has, during the previous year, sold such articles to any other person in India who himself has exported them out of India and evidence is produced before the Income-tax Officer of such articles having been so exported, the assessee shall be entitled to a deduction, from the amount of income-tax with which he is chargeable for the assessment year, of an amount equal to the income-tax calculated at the average rate of income-tax on a sum equal to two per cent. of the sale proceeds receivable by him in respect of such articles from the exporter.

(b) The total of the deductions under this sub-section shall in no case exceed the amount of income-tax otherwise payable by the assessee.

(c) Nothing contained in sub-clause (ii) and sub-clause (iii) of clause (a) shall apply,—

(i) in relation to—

- (1) fuels,
- (2) fertilisers,
- (3) photographic raw film and paper,
- (4) textiles (including those dyed, printed or otherwise processed) made wholly or in part of jute, including jute twine and rope,
- (5) newsprint,
- (6) pulp—wood pulp, mechanical, chemical, including dissolving pulp,
- (7) sugar,
- (8) vegetable oils and vanaspathi,
- (9) cement and gypsum products,
- (10) arms and ammunition, and
- (11) cigarettes, respectively specified in items 2, 18, 20, 23(2), 24(2), 24(5), 25, 28, 35, 37 and 38 of the First Schedule to the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951; or

(ii) in relation to textiles specified in items 23(1), 23(3), 23(4) and 23(5) of that Schedule where such textiles have been exported before the 1st day of March, 1964.

(d) The amount of any profits and gains derived from the export of any goods or merchandise out of India in respect of which deduction of income-tax is admissible under sub-clause (i) of clause (a) shall be computed in accordance with the rules made by the Central Board of Direct Taxes in this behalf.

(6) In cases in which tax has to be deducted under sections 193 to 195 of the Income-tax Act at the rates in force, the deduction shall be made at the rates specified in Part II of the First Schedule.

(7) For the purposes of this section, and of the rates of income-tax imposed thereby, and of section 3—

(i) the expressions “assessment year”, “average rate of income-tax”, “non-resident”, “partner”, and “total income” have, unless the context otherwise requires, the meanings respectively assigned to them under clauses (9), (10), (30), (23) and (45) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act;

(ii) the expression “earned income” means any income of an assessee who is an individual, Hindu undivided family, unregistered firm or other association of persons or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, not being a company, a local authority, a registered firm or a firm assessed under clause (b) of section 183 of the said Act—

(a) which is chargeable under the head “Salaries”; or

(b) which is chargeable under the head “Profits and gains of business or profession” where the business or profession is carried on by the assessee or, in the case of a firm, where the assessee is a partner actively engaged in the conduct of the business or profession; or

(c) which is chargeable under the head “Income from other sources” if it is immediately derived from personal exertion or represents a pension or superannuation or other allowance given to the assessee in respect of the past services of any deceased person, or which is chargeable under that head under clause (ia) of sub-section (2) of section 56 of the Income-tax Act; and includes any such income which, though it is the income of another person, is included in the assessee’s income under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, but does not include any such income on which income-tax is not payable under clause (iii) or clause (v) of section 86 of that Act or which is exempted from tax under a notification issued under section 60 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, as continued in force by clause (l) of sub-section (2) of section 297 of the Income-tax Act;

(iii) the expression “unearned income” means income which is not “earned income”.

Annuity deposit.

3. (1) Save as otherwise provided in Chapter XXIIA of the Income-tax Act, annuity deposit for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1965 shall be made by every person to whom the provisions of that Chapter apply at the rates specified in the Second Schedule.

(2) For the purposes of this section and the Second Schedule, the expressions "adjusted total income", "annuity deposit" and "depositor" have the meanings respectively assigned to them under clauses (1), (5) and (6) of section 280B of the Income-tax Act.

4. In section 2 of the Income-tax Act,—

Amendment of
section 2.

(ii) in sub-clause (vii) (a) of clause (6),—

(a) after the words "such person continues", the words, figure and letters "with the approval of the Central Government obtained before the 1st day of October of the relevant assessment year" shall be inserted;

(b) for the words "twenty-four months", the words "sixty months" shall be substituted;

(iii) for clause (13), the following clause shall be substituted and shall be deemed always to have been substituted, namely:—

“(13) any payment from an approved superannuation fund made—

(i) on the death of a beneficiary; or

(ii) to an employee in lieu of or in commutation of an annuity on his retirement at or after a specified age or on his becoming incapacitated prior to such retirement; or

(iii) by way of refund of contributions on the death of a beneficiary; or

(iv) by way of refund of contributions to an employee on his leaving the service in connection with which the fund is established otherwise than by retirement at or after a specified age or on his becoming incapacitated prior to such retirement, to the extent to which such payment does not exceed the contributions made prior to the commencement of this Act and any interest thereon;”;

(iv) after clause (27), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(28) in the case of any person granted a tax credit certificate, any amount adjusted or paid to him in respect of such certificate under the provisions of Chapter XXIIB and any scheme made thereunder.”.

7. In section 18 of the Income-tax Act, in clause (i) of sub-section (1), after the word “Government”, the words, figures and letters “not being interest payable under section 280D in respect of any annuity deposit made under Chapter XXIIA” shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 18.

8. In section 33 of the Income-tax Act,—

Amendment of section 33.

(i) in sub-section (1), for clause (iii), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(iii) in the case of machinery or plant installed after the 31st day of March, 1961—

(a) where the machinery or plant is installed after the 31st day of March, 1963 and before the 1st day of April, 1966 for the purposes of business of mining coal, thirty-five per cent. of the actual cost of the machinery or plant to the assessee,

(b) where the machinery or plant is installed before the 1st day of April, 1965 for the purposes of any other business, twenty per cent.,

(c) where the machinery or plant is installed after the 31st day of March, 1965—

(A) for the purposes of business of construction, manufacture or production of any one or more of the articles or things specified in the list in the Fifth Schedule, twenty-five per cent. of the actual cost of the machinery or plant to the assessee, and

(B) for the purposes of any other business,—

(a) twenty per cent. of the actual cost of the machinery or plant to the assessee, where it is installed before the 1st day of April, 1967; and

(b) fifteen per cent. of such cost, in any other case;”;

(ii) in sub-section (2), for the words, brackets, figures and letter “any allowance under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A)”, wherever they occur, the words, brackets, figures and letters “any allowance under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A) of this section or sub-section (1) of section 33A” shall be substituted;

(iii) after sub-section (5), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section, no deduction by way of development rebate shall be allowed in respect of any machinery or plant installed after the 31st day of March, 1965 in any office premises or any residential accommodation, including any accommodation in the nature of a guest-house.”.

9. After section 33 of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

‘33A. (1) In respect of planting of tea bushes on any land in India owned by an assessee who carries on business of growing and manufacturing tea in India, a sum by way of development allowance equivalent to—

(i) where tea bushes have been planted on any land not planted at any time with tea bushes or on any land which had been previously abandoned, forty per cent. of the actual cost of planting; and

of new
section 33A.

Develop-
allowance.

(ii) where tea bushes are planted in replacement of tea bushes that have died or have become permanently useless on any land already planted, twenty per cent, of the actual cost of planting.

shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be allowed as a deduction in respect of the third succeeding previous year next following the previous year in which the land is prepared for planting or replating, as the case may be:

Provided that no deduction under clause (i) shall be allowed unless the planting has commenced after the 31st day of March, 1965, and no deduction shall be allowed under clause (ii) unless the planting has commenced after the 31st day of March, 1965, and been completed before the 1st day of April, 1970.

(2) Where the total income of the assessee assessable for the assessment year relevant to the third succeeding previous year next following the previous year in which the land has been prepared [the total income for this purpose being computed after making the allowance under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A) or clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of section 33 but without making any allowance under sub-section (1) of this section] is nil or is less than the full amount of the development allowance calculated at the rates specified in sub-section (1)—

(i) the sum to be allowed by way of development allowance for that assessment year under sub-section (1) shall be only such amount as is sufficient to reduce the said total income to nil; and

(ii) the amount of the development allowance, to the extent to which it has not been allowed as aforesaid, shall be carried forward to the following assessment year, and the development allowance to be allowed for the following assessment year shall be such amount as is sufficient to reduce the total income of the assessee assessable for that assessment year, computed in the manner aforesaid, to nil, and the balance of the development allowance, if any, still outstanding shall be carried forward to the following assessment year and so on, so however, that no portion of the development allowance shall be carried forward for more than eight assessment years immediately succeeding the assessment year in which the deduction was first allowable.

Explanation.—Where for any assessment year development allowance is to be allowed in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) in respect of more than one previous year, and the total income of the assessee assessable for that assessment year [the total income for this purpose being computed after making the allowance under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A) or clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of section 33 but without making any allowance under sub-section (1) of this section] is less than the amount of the development allowance due to be made in respect of that assessment year, the following procedure shall be followed, namely :—

(i) the allowance under clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of this section shall be made before any allowance under clause (i) of that sub-section is made; and

(ii) where an allowance has to be made under clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of this section in respect of amounts carried forward from more than one assessment year, the amount carried forward from an earlier assessment year shall be allowed before any amount carried forward from a later assessment year.

(3) The deduction under sub-section (1) shall be allowed only if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely:—

(i) the particulars prescribed in this behalf have been furnished by the assessee;

(ii) an amount equal to seventy-five per cent. of the development allowance to be actually allowed is debited to the profit and loss account of the relevant previous year and credited to a reserve account to be utilised by the assessee during a period of eight years next following for the purposes of the business of the undertaking, other than—

(a) for distribution by way of dividends or profits;

or

(b) for remittance outside India as profits or for the creation of any asset outside India; and

(iii) such other conditions as may be prescribed.

(4) If any such land is sold or otherwise transferred by the assessee to any person at any time before the expiry of eight years from the end of the previous year in which the deduction under sub-section (1) was allowed, any allowance under this section shall be deemed to have been wrongly made for the purposes of this Act, and the provisions of sub-section (5A) of section 155 shall apply accordingly:

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply—

(i) where the land is sold or otherwise transferred by the assessee to the Government, a local authority, a corporation established by a Central, State or Provincial Act or a Government company as defined in section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956; or

(ii) where the sale or transfer of the land is made in connection with the amalgamation or succession referred to in sub-section (5) or sub-section (6).

(5) Where in a scheme of amalgamation, a company (hereinafter in this sub-section referred to as the predecessor) sells or otherwise transfers to the company formed in pursuance of the predecessor's amalgamation with that company (hereinafter in this sub-section referred to as the successor) any land in respect of which development allowance has been allowed to the predecessor under sub-section (1),—

(a) the successor shall continue to fulfil the conditions mentioned in sub-section (3) in respect of the reserve created by the predecessor and in respect of the period within which such land shall not be sold or otherwise transferred and in default of any of these conditions, the provisions of sub-section (5A) of section 155 shall apply to the successor as they would have applied to the predecessor had it committed the default;

(b) the balance of development allowance, if any, still outstanding to the predecessor in respect of such land shall be allowed to the successor in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2), so however, that the total period for which the balance of development allowance shall be carried forward in the assessments of the predecessor and the successor shall not exceed the period of eight years specified in sub-section (2) and the successor shall be treated as the assessee in respect of such land for the purposes of this section.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, "amalgamation" shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Explanation to sub-section (3) of section 33.

(6) Where a firm is succeeded to by a company in the business carried on by it as a result of which the firm sells or otherwise transfers to the company any land on which development allowance has been allowed, the provisions of clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (5) shall, so far as may be, apply to the firm and the company.

Explanation.—The provisions of this sub-section shall apply if the conditions laid down in the Explanation to sub-section (4) of section 33 are fulfilled.

(7) For the purposes of this section, "actual cost of planting" means the aggregate of—

- (i) the cost of preparing the land;
- (ii) the cost of seeds, cutting and nurseries;
- (iii) the cost of planting and replanting; and

(iv) the cost of up-keep thereof for the previous year in which the land has been prepared and the three successive previous years next following such previous year, reduced by that portion of the cost, if any, as has been met directly or indirectly by any other person or authority:

Provided that where such cost exceeds twelve thousand five hundred rupees per hectare in respect of land situate in a hilly area or exceeds ten thousand rupees per hectare in any other area, then the excess shall be ignored.

(8) The Board may, having regard to the elevation and topography, by general or special order, declare any areas to be hilly areas for the purposes of this section and such order shall not be questioned before any court of law or any other authority.

section 34. 10. In section 34 of the Income-tax Act, in the Explanation to clause (i) of sub-section (2), for the words, brackets and figures "is transferred by a company to a subsidiary company, then, if the conditions of clause (iv) of section 47 are satisfied", the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"is transferred by a holding company to its subsidiary company or by a subsidiary company to its holding company, then, if the conditions of clause (iv) or, as the case may be, of clause (v) of section 47 are satisfied".

Amend-
ment of section 36. 11. In section 36 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (1), after clause (viii), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(ix) any expenditure bona fide incurred by a company for the purpose of promoting family planning amongst its employees:

Provided that where such expenditure or any part thereof is of a capital nature, one-fifth of such expenditure shall be deducted for the previous year in which it was incurred; and the balance thereof shall be deducted in equal instalments for each of the four immediately succeeding previous years:

Provided further that the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 32 and of sub-section (2) of section 72 shall apply in relation to deductions allowable under this clause as they apply in relation to deductions allowable in respect of depreciation:

Provided further that the provisions of clauses (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of sub-section (2) of section 35, of sub-section (3) of section 41 and of Explanation 1 to clause (1) of section 43 shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to an asset representing expenditure of a capital nature for the purposes of promoting family planning as they apply in relation to an asset representing expenditure of a capital nature on scientific research.”.

12. In section 37 of the Income-tax Act, in clause (i) of sub-section (2), after the word and figures “section 33”, the words, figures and letter “or section 33A” shall be inserted. Amendment of
section 37.

13. In section 40 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-clause (iii) of clause (c),— Amendment of
section 40.

(a) in the proviso—

(i) after the words, brackets and figure “in sub-clause (i)”, the words, brackets and figures “or any payment of tax referred to in sub-clause (vii)” shall be inserted;

(ii) after the words, brackets and figures “clause (iv) or clause (v)”, the words, brackets and figures “or any expenditure referred to in clause (ix)” shall be inserted;

(b) after the proviso, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided further that nothing in this sub-clause shall apply to any expenditure which results directly or indirectly in the provision of any benefit or amenity or perquisite to an employee whose income chargeable under the head “Salaries” is seven thousand five hundred rupees or less.”

14. In section 43 of the Income-tax Act,—

(a) for Explanation 6 to clause (1), the following Explanation shall be substituted, namely:— Amendment
of section 43.

“Explanation 6.—When any capital asset is transferred by a holding company to its subsidiary company or by a subsidiary company to its holding company, then, if the conditions of clause (iv) or, as the case may be, of clause (v) of section 47 are satisfied, the actual cost of the transferred capital asset to the transferee company shall be taken to be the same as it would have been if the transferor company had continued to hold the capital asset for the purposes of its business.”;

(b) for Explanation 2 to clause (6), the following Explanation shall be substituted, namely:—

“Explanation 2.—When any capital asset is transferred by a holding company to its subsidiary company or by a subsidiary company to its holding company, then, if the conditions of clause (iv) or, as the case may be, of clause (v) of section 47 are satisfied, the written down value of the transferred capital asset to the transferee company shall be taken to be the same as it would have been if the transferor company had continued to hold the capital asset for the purposes of its business.”.

Amend-
ment of
section 47

15. In section 47 of the Income-tax Act, after clause (iv), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(v) any transfer of a capital asset by a subsidiary company to the holding company if—

(a) the whole of the share capital of the subsidiary company is held by the holding company, and

(b) the holding company is an Indian company.”.

Amend-
ment of
section 49.

16. In section 49 of the Income-tax Act,—

(i) in sub-clause (e) of clause (iii), after the word, brackets and figures “clause (iv)”, the words, brackets and figure “or clause (v)” shall be inserted;

(ii) at the end, the following Explanation shall be added, namely:—

Explanation.—In this section the expression “previous owner of the property” in relation to any capital asset owned by an assessee means the last previous owner of the capital asset who acquired it by a mode of acquisition other than that referred to in clause (i) or clause (ii) or clause (iii) of this section.’.

Insertion
of new
section
54A.

17. After section 54 of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Relief of tax on capital gains in certain cases.

‘54A. (1) Where in the case of an assessee, being an individual who is not a citizen of India or being a company which is not an Indian company, a capital gain arises from the transfer of a capital asset, being shares in an Indian company, and the assessee has, within a period of two years from the date of such transfer, re-invested the full value of the consideration or any part thereof received or accruing as a result of such transfer in an investment approved by the Central Government in this behalf (hereinafter in this section referred to as the approved investment), the assessee shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), be entitled to a credit of a sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2).

(2) The amount to be given as credit under sub-section (1) shall be a sum which bears to the amount of income-tax payable by the assessee on the income chargeable under the head “Capital gains” arising from the transfer referred to in sub-section (1) the same proportion as the amount invested in the approved investment as reduced by the cost of acquisition [as ascertained for the purposes of clause (ii) of section 48] of the transferred shares bears to the capital gains arising from such transfer.

(3) The amount of credit so calculated shall be given in the following manner, namely:—

(a) if the approved investment is made by the assessee within the period of two years aforesaid and before the completion of the assessment in respect of the year in which the income arising from such transfer is chargeable to tax, the amount of the credit shall, on the assessee making a claim in this behalf in the prescribed form and in the prescribed manner, be adjusted against the tax payable by the assessee in respect of that assessment year, and

(b) if the approved investment is made by the assessee within the period of two years aforesaid but after the assessment for the relevant year is made, the amount of the credit shall, on the assessee making a claim in the prescribed form and in the prescribed manner, be deemed to be refund due to the assessee under Chapter XIX and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.'

18. In section 56 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (2), after Amendment of
clause (i), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:— section 56.

"(ia) income referred to in sub-clause (viii) of clause (24) of section 2;".

19. After section 69A of the Income-tax Act, the following Insertion section shall be inserted under the sub-heading "Aggregation of new Income", namely:— section 69B.

"69B. Where in any financial year the assessee has made investments or is found to be the owner of any bullion, jewellery or other valuable article, and the Income-tax Officer finds that the amount expended on making such investments or in acquiring such bullion, jewellery or other valuable article exceeds the amount recorded in this behalf in the books of account maintained by the assessee for any source of income, and the assessee offers no explanation about such excess amount or the explanation offered by him is not, in the opinion of the Income-tax Officer, satisfactory, the excess amount may be deemed to be the income of the assessee for such financial year.".

20. After section 80 of the Income-tax Act, the following Chapter and sections shall be inserted, namely:—

'CHAPTER VIA

DEDUCTIONS TO BE MADE IN COMPUTING TOTAL INCOME

Deduction
in respect of life insurance
premia, annuities
and contributions to provident fund, etc.

80A. (1) In computing the total income of an assessee there shall be deducted, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this section, an amount equal to sixty per cent. of the first five thousand rupees of the aggregate of the sums specified in sub-section (2) and fifty per cent. of the balance, if any, of such aggregate.

(2) The sums referred to in sub-section (1) shall be the following, namely:—

(a) where the assessee is an individual, any sums paid in the previous year by the assessee out of his income chargeable to tax—

(i) to effect or to keep in force an insurance on the life of the assessee or on the life of the wife or husband of the assessee; or

(ii) to effect or to keep in force a contract for a deferred annuity on the life of the assessee or on the life of the wife or husband of the assessee; or

(iii) as a contribution to any provident fund to which the Provident Funds Act, 1925 applies;

(b) where the assessee is a Hindu undivided family, any sums paid in the previous year by the assessee out of its income chargeable to tax, to effect or to keep in force an insurance on the life of any male member of the family or of the wife of any such member;

(c) any sum deducted in the previous year from the salary payable by or on behalf of the Government to any individual being a sum deducted in accordance with the conditions of his service, for the purpose of securing to him a deferred annuity or making provision for his wife or children, in so far as the sum so deducted does not exceed one-fifth of the salary;

(d) if the assessee is an employee participating in a recognized provident fund, his own contributions to his individual account in the fund in the previous year, in so far as the aggregate of such contributions does not exceed one-fifth of his salary in that previous year or eight thousand rupees, whichever is less.

Explanation.—In clause (d) of this sub-section and in clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 87, "salary" shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (h) of rule 2 of Part A of the Fourth Schedule;

(e) if the assessee is an employee participating in an approved superannuation fund, any sum paid in the previous year by him by way of contribution towards the superannuation fund;

19 of 1925.

(f) where the assessee is an individual, any sums deposited, in the previous year by the assessee out of his income chargeable to tax, in a ten-year account or a fifteen-year account under the Post Office Savings Bank (Cumulative Time Deposits) Rules, 1959, as amended from time to time.

(3) The provisions of clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (2) shall apply only to so much of any premium or other payment made on a policy other than a contract for a deferred annuity as is not in excess of ten per cent. of the actual capital sum assured.

Explanation.--In calculating any such capital sum, no account shall be taken—

(i) of the value of any premiums agreed to be returned,
or

(ii) of any benefit by way of bonus or otherwise over and above the sum actually assured, which is to be or may be received under the policy by any person.

(4) The aggregate of the sums referred to in sub-section (2), which qualifies for the purposes of computing the deduction referred to in sub-section (1), shall not exceed—

(i) in the case of an individual being an author, playwright, artist, musician or actor, such percentage of his total income, as computed before making any deduction under this Chapter and before deduction of any amount of annuity deposit under section 280O, or such amount, as may be prescribed :

Provided that such individual has effected an insurance referred to in sub-clause (i) of clause (a) of sub-section (2) prior to the 1st day of March, 1964 and has paid any sum in the previous year to keep in force such insurance;

(ii) in the case of any other individual [including an author, playwright, artist, musician or actor to whom the provisions of clause (i) do not apply], twenty-five per cent. of the total income, as computed before making any deduction under this Chapter and before deduction of any amount of annuity deposit under section 280O, or twelve thousand five hundred rupees, whichever is less;

(iii) in the case of a Hindu undivided family, twenty-five per cent. of its total income, as computed before making any deduction under this Chapter and before deduction of any amount of annuity deposit under section 280O, or twenty-five thousand rupees, whichever is less.

(5) If the total income of the assessee includes any income chargeable under the head "Salaries", the deduction under sub-section (1) shall be made in computing the income under that head, and if there is no income chargeable under that head, or if the amount required to be deducted exceeds such income, the whole or the balance of the amount required to be deducted shall be allowed as a deduction in computing earned income chargeable under any other head, and, if there is no earned income chargeable under any other head or the whole or the balance of the amount required to be deducted exceeds such earned income, the whole or the balance of the amount required to be deducted shall be allowed as a deduction in computing any other income under any head.

(6) This section shall apply in respect of—

- (i) the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1966 and any subsequent assessment year, in the case of an assessee whose total income includes any income chargeable under the head "Salaries" from which tax is deducted, or deductible, at source in accordance with the provisions of section 192; and
- (ii) the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1965 and any subsequent assessment year, in the case of any other assessee.

Deduction in respect of medical treatment, etc., of handicapped persons.

80B. (1) Where an assessee who is resident in India, being an individual or Hindu undivided family, who has, during the previous year, incurred out of his or its income chargeable to income-tax, any expenditure for the medical treatment (including nursing) of a person who—

(a) is a relative of the individual, or, as the case may be, is a member of the Hindu undivided family and is not dependent on any person other than such individual or Hindu undivided family for his support or maintenance, and

(b) is suffering from a physical or mental disability which is certified by a registered medical practitioner to have the effect of reducing considerably such person's capacity for normal work or engaging in a gainful employment (hereinafter in this section referred to as handicapped dependant), the assessee shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be allowed a deduction of the amount specified in sub-section (2) in the computation of his total income in respect of the previous year.

(2) The deduction under sub-section (1) shall be—

(i) in a case where the handicapped dependant has, for a period of one hundred and eighty-two days or more during the previous year, been admitted in a hospital or a nursing home or a medical institution or in such other institution as may be notified by the Central Government in the Official Gazette to be an institution for the care of handicapped persons, and fees and charges for his medical treatment (including nursing) are payable to such hospital or nursing home or medical or other institution, as the case may be, a sum of two thousand four hundred rupees, or

(ii) in any other case, a sum of six hundred rupees, as reduced, in either case, by an amount equal to the income, if any, of the handicapped dependant in respect of the previous year :

Provided that where the assessee has, during the previous year, incurred expenditure on more than one handicapped dependant, the deduction under sub-section (1) shall be allowed only with reference to one such handicapped dependant as may be chosen by the assessee.

(3) If the total income of the assessee includes any earned income, the allowance referred to in sub-section (1) shall be made in computing the earned income chargeable under any head, and if there is no such income or the amount of the allowance exceeds such income, the whole or the balance of such amount, as the case may be, shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the assessee's unearned income chargeable under any head.

80C. (1) Where in the case of an assessee, being an individual who is a citizen of India and is resident in India, his share in the income of a registered firm which renders professional service as chartered accountant, solicitor, lawyer, architect, or such other professional service as may be notified in this behalf by the Central Government in the Official Gazette is chargeable to tax and he has paid out of his income chargeable to tax a premium (by whatever name called) in any previous year under an annuity contract for the time being approved by the Commissioner as having for its main object the provision for the individual of a life annuity in old age (hereinafter in this section referred to as qualifying premium), then the assessee shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be allowed a deduction of the amount of the qualifying premium in the computation of his total income in respect of the previous year:

Provided that the amount which may be so deducted shall not exceed the sum of five thousand rupees or one-tenth of his total income for that year, whichever is less:

Provided further that any annuity payable to the individual shall be deemed to be his earned income to the extent to which it is attributable to the amount in respect of which deduction has been allowed under this section and chargeable to tax accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of the first proviso, “total income” means the total income computed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, before making any deduction under this Chapter and before deduction of any amount of annuity deposit under section 280C but excluding any income which would otherwise be included in his total income under the provisions of section 64.

(2) Subject to sub-section (3) and any rules made by the Board in this behalf, the Commissioner shall not approve a contract unless he is satisfied that it does not—

(a) provide for the payment during the life of the individual of any sum except sums payable by way of annuity to the individual; or

(b) provide for the annuity payable to the individual to commence before he attains the age of fifty-eight or after he attains the age of sixty-eight; or

(c) provide for the payment of any other sums except sums payable by way of annuity to the individual's widow or widower and any sums which, in the event of no annuity becoming payable either to the individual or to a widow or widower of the individual, are payable to the individual's legal representative, by way of return of premiums, by way of reasonable interest on premiums and by way of bonus out of profits; or

(d) provide for the payment of annuity, if any, payable to a widow or widower of the individual to be of a greater annual amount than that paid or payable to the individual; or

(e) provide for the payment of any annuity otherwise than for the life of the annuitant;

and that it does include a provision that no annuity payable under it shall be capable in whole or in part of surrender, commutation or assignment.

(3) The Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, and subject to any conditions the Board may, by rules, prescribe and subject to any conditions he thinks proper to impose, approve a contract notwithstanding that the contract provides for one or more of the following matters, that is to say,—

(a) for the payment after the individual's death of an annuity to a dependant other than the widow or widower of the individual;

(b) for the payment to the individual of an annuity commencing before he attains the age of fifty-eight, if the annuity is payable on his becoming incapable through infirmity of mind or body of being actively engaged in his profession or any profession of a similar nature for which he is trained or fitted;

(c) for the annuity payable to any person to continue for a specified term (not exceeding ten years), notwithstanding his death within that term;

(d) in the case of an annuity which is to continue for such specified term, for the annuity to be assignable by will.

(4) The foregoing provisions of this section shall apply in relation to a contribution (by whatever name called) to a fund approved by the Commissioner as they apply in relation to any premium under an annuity contract so approved provided the fund satisfies also the conditions set out below and any other conditions which the Board may, by rules, prescribe, namely:—

(a) the fund shall be a fund established in India under an irrevocable trust for the benefit of individuals engaged in any profession referred to in sub-section (1);

(b) the fund shall have for its sole purpose the provision of annuities for individuals engaged in such profession on attaining a specified age or on their becoming incapacitated prior to attaining such age, or for the widow, children or dependants of such persons on their death;

(c) all annuities, pensions and other benefits granted from the fund shall be payable only in India.

(5) The Commissioner may, at any time, after giving a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed withdrawal to the persons by and to whom premiums are payable under any contract for the time being approved under this section, or to the trustees of any fund so approved, withdraw the approval.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (4), no deduction under this section shall be allowed in the case of any individual—

(i) whose total income includes unearned income of more than ten thousand rupees; or

(ii) who is entitled to any pension or participating in any pension or superannuation scheme.

(7) The allowance under this section shall be made in computing the earned income of the assessee included in the total income, so however, that the allowance shall not in any case exceed the amount of the income computed under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession".

(8) Any annuity payable under an approved contract referred to in sub-section (1) or from any fund referred to in sub-section (4), to a person other than the individual who pays the premium or makes the contribution and any interest on premiums or bonus out of profits payable to such person, shall be deemed to be his unearned income to the extent it is attributable to the amount of deduction allowed under sub-section (1) and chargeable to tax accordingly.

(9) Where any payment by way of annuity or otherwise is made by a person to whom premiums or contributions are payable under sub-section (1) or sub-section (4), such person shall, subject to any rules made by the Board in this behalf, deduct from the total amount so paid during any financial year, tax at such rate or rates in force in that year as would be applicable to such amount, if it were the total income and shall pay the amount so deducted to the credit of the Central Government within the prescribed time and in such manner as the Board may direct and the provisions of section 201 shall, so far as may be, apply to such person if he does not deduct, or after deducting fails to pay, such tax.

(10) Where a deduction under this section is claimed and allowed for any assessment year in respect of any payment, relief shall not be given in respect of it under any other provision of this Act for the same or a later assessment year nor (in the case of a payment under an annuity contract) in respect of any other premium or consideration for an annuity under the same contract.

(11) (a) The Board may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this section.

(b) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may—

(i) prescribe the statements and other information to be submitted along with an application for approval;

(ii) prescribe the returns, statements, particulars or information which the Income-tax Officer may require from a person by and to whom premiums or contributions are payable under this section;

(iii) provide for the assessment by way of penalty of any consideration received by an individual for an assignment of, or creation of a charge upon, any annuity or other sum receivable by him under any contract or from any fund approved for the time being under this section; and

(iv) provide for securing such further control over the approval granted under this section and administration of funds approved under this section as it may deem requisite.

CHAPTER XXIIB

TAX CREDIT CERTIFICATES

Definitions.

280Y. In this Chapter,—

- (a) "eligible issue of capital" means an issue of ordinary shares specified as such in the scheme;
- (b) "public company" means a public company as defined in section 3 of the Companies Act, 1956;
- (c) "scheme" means a scheme made under this Chapter;
- (d) "urban area" means any area which the Central Government may, having regard to the population, concentration of industries, need for proper planning of the area and other relevant factors, by general or special order, declare to be an urban area for the purposes of this Chapter.

as of 1956.

Tax credit certificates to certain equity shareholders.

280Z. (1) An individual shall be granted a tax credit certificate if he by himself or some other person on his behalf has subscribed to, and made payments in respect of, any eligible issue of capital.

(2) A Hindu undivided family shall also be granted a tax credit certificate if any person has subscribed to, and made payments in respect of, any eligible issue of capital on behalf of that Hindu undivided family.

(3) A tax credit certificate granted under the provisions of this section shall be for the amount or the aggregate of the amounts computed as hereunder with reference to the capital so subscribed and paid:

(i) On the first Rs. 15,000 of the amount paid in the financial year	.. at the rate of 5 per cent.;
(ii) On the next Rs. 10,000 of the amount paid in the financial year	.. at the rate of 8 per cent.;
(iii) On the next Rs. 10,000 of the amount paid in the financial year	.. at the rate of 2 per cent.;
(iv) On the balance of the amount paid in the financial year	.. Nil

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section—

1 of 1956.

(i) "subscribed" includes acquisition of the shares forming part of an eligible issue of capital from a person who is specified as an underwriter in pursuance of clause 11 of Part I of Schedule II to the Companies Act, 1956 (hereinafter in this section referred to as the underwriter);

(ii) a payment shall be treated as having been made to the extent to which and on the date on which the amount of the said payment has been credited to the share capital account of the Company.

(4) A tax credit certificate for the amount specified in sub-section (3) shall be granted to an individual or Hindu undivided family—

(a) where payment by way of subscription has been made to the company, in respect of the financial year in which payment has been made and each of the three financial years following that year; and

(b) where the acquisition has been made from the underwriter, in respect of the financial year in which the capital was so acquired and each one, if any, of the following financial years not falling beyond the third financial year from the end of the financial year in which the payment by way of subscription has been made to the company by the underwriter:

Provided that, in either case, the capital is held by or on behalf of the individual or on behalf of the Hindu undivided family, as the case may be, at the end of the relevant financial year:

Provided further that where any part of the capital in respect of which a tax credit certificate had been granted in a financial year (hereinafter referred to as the earlier financial year) is sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of in a subsequent financial year, the tax credit certificate to be granted with reference to the remaining capital in respect of the said subsequent financial year or any financial year following that year shall be for such amount as bears to the amount for which the tax credit certificate was granted in the earlier financial year the same proportion as the amount of the remaining capital as on the 31st day of March of the subsequent financial year bears to the total amount of the capital with reference to which the tax credit certificate was granted in the earlier financial year.

(5) If any individual by himself or on behalf of any other individual or on behalf of any Hindu undivided family has acquired any shares forming part of an eligible issue of capital from the underwriter, he shall not be entitled to a tax credit certificate under this section, unless his name is entered as a shareholder in respect of such shares in the register of shareholders of the company.

(6) The amount shown on a tax credit certificate granted to an individual or Hindu undivided family shall, on the certificate being produced before the Income-tax Officer, be adjusted against any existing liability of such individual or Hindu undivided family under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, or this Act, or any such liability arising within the period of twelve months from the date on which the certificate was produced before the Income-tax Officer, and where the amount of such certificate exceeds such liability, or where there is no such liability, the excess or the whole of such amount, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter XIX, be deemed, on the date of the expiry of the said period of twelve months, to be refund due to such individual or Hindu undivided family, as the case may be, under that Chapter and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

11 of 1923.

(7) The Central Government may specify in a scheme any issue of ordinary shares by a public company as eligible issue of capital.

(8) In specifying any issue of ordinary shares as eligible issue of capital, the Central Government shall have regard to the following factors, namely:—

(a) the total amount of the capital issued;

(b) the terms and conditions subject to which the capital is issued;

(c) the trade or business in which the company concerned is engaged;

(d) the purposes for which the issue is being made;

(e) any other relevant factor.

280ZA. (1) If any public company owning an industrial undertaking situate in an urban area shifts, with the prior approval of the Board, such undertaking to any area (not being the area in which such undertaking is situate), it shall be granted a tax credit certificate.

(2) The tax credit certificate to be granted under sub-section (1) shall be for an amount computed in the following manner with reference to the amount of the tax payable by the company on its income chargeable under the head "Capital gains" arising from the transfer of capital assets being buildings or lands or any rights in buildings or lands used for the purposes of the business of the said undertaking in the urban area, effected in the course of or in consequence of the shifting of such industrial undertaking, namely:—

(a) the amount of expenditure incurred by the company in—

(i) acquiring lands or constructing buildings for the purposes of the business of the company in the area to which the undertaking is shifted, and

(ii) shifting its machinery or plant and other effects and transferring its establishment to such area, within a period of three years, from the date of the approval referred to in sub-section (1), or such further period as the Board may allow, shall first be ascertained;

(b) the amount of the tax credit certificate shall bear to the amount of tax payable by the company on its income chargeable under the head "Capital gains" as aforesaid, the same proportion as the amount of expenditure ascertained under clause (a) bears to the amount of the said income;

Provided that the amount of the tax credit certificate shall in no case exceed the amount of the tax aforesaid.

(3) The amount shown on a tax credit certificate granted to a public company under sub-section (1) shall, on the certificate being produced before the Income-tax Officer, be adjusted against any existing liability of the company under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, or this Act, or any such liability arising within the period of twelve months from the date on which the certificate was produced before the Income-tax Officer, and where the amount of such certificate exceeds such liability, or where there is no such liability, the excess or the whole of such amount, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter XIX, be deemed, on the date of the expiry of the said period of twelve months, to be refund due to such company under that Chapter and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

(4) Where a capital asset, being building or land, or any right in building or land, acquired or, as the case may be, constructed in the area to which the undertaking of the company is shifted, is transferred by the company within a period of five years from the date of acquisition or, as the case may be, the date of completion of construction to any person other than the Government, a local authority, a corporation established by a Central, State or Provincial Act or a Government company as defined in section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956, an amount equal to one-half of the amount for which a tax credit certificate has been granted to the company under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be tax due from the company on the thirtieth day following the date of transfer under a notice of demand issued under section 156, and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

Explanation.—Any land or building used for the residence of persons employed in the business of the company or for the use of such persons as a hospital, creche, school, canteen, library, recreational centre, shelter, rest-room or lunch-room shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be land or building used for the purposes of the business of the company.

Tax credit Certificate to certain manufacturing Companies in certain cases.

280ZB. (1) Where any company engaged in the manufacture or production of any of the articles mentioned in the First Schedule to the Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 is, in respect of its profits and gains attributable to such manufacture or production,—

65 of 1951.

(i) liable to pay any tax for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1965 (hereinafter referred to as the base year) and for any one or more of the five assessment years next following that year; or

(ii) not liable to pay any tax for the base year but becomes so liable for any succeeding year (hereinafter referred to as the succeeding base year) and also for any one or more of the assessment years following that year, not being an assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1971, or any subsequent assessment year and the tax for any such succeeding year exceeds—

(a) in the case referred to in clause (i), the tax payable for the base year;

(b) in the case referred to in clause (ii), the tax payable for the succeeding base year, then the company shall be granted a tax credit certificate for an amount equal to twenty per cent. of such excess:

Provided that the amount of the tax credit certificate shall not for any assessment year exceed ten per cent. of such tax payable by the company for that year.

(2) The amount shown on a tax credit certificate granted to any company under the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on the certificate being produced before the Income-tax Officer, be adjusted against any existing liability of such company under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, or this Act, or any such liability arising within a period of twelve months from the date on which the certificate was produced before the Income-tax Officer and where the amount of such certificate exceeds such liability, or where there is no such liability, the excess or the whole of such amount, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter XIX, be deemed, on the date of the expiry of the said period of twelve months, to be refund due to such company under that Chapter and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly:

Provided that the adjustment or refund, as the case may be, under this sub-section shall be only for such amount, not exceeding the amount of the certificate, as is used within such period as may be specified in the scheme—

(i) for repayment of loans taken by the company from any of the financial institutions notified in this behalf by the Central Government, or

(ii) for redemption of its debentures, or

of 1922.

(iii) for the acquisition of any capital asset in India, including the construction of any building, for the purposes of the business of the company.

Explanation 1.—In this section, “tax” means income-tax payable under this Act and surtax, if any, payable under the Companies (Profits) Surtax Act, 1964.

7 of 1964.

Explanation 2.—The amount of income-tax in respect of the profits or gains attributable to the manufacture or production of the articles referred to in sub-section (1) shall be an amount bearing to the total amount of income-tax payable on the total income (such income-tax being computed in the manner specified hereunder) the same proportion as the amount of such profits or gains bears to the total income. The amount of income-tax payable by the company for any assessment year shall be computed after making allowance for any relief, rebate or deduction in respect of income-tax to which the company is entitled under the provisions of this Act or the annual Finance Act and after deducting from such amount of income-tax the amount of additional income-tax, if any, payable by the company under the provisions of section 104 and also the amount, if any, by which the rebate of income-tax admissible to the company under the provisions of the annual Finance Act is, under the provisions of the said Act, reduced with reference to the face value of any bonus shares or the amount of any bonus issued by the company to its shareholders during the previous year or any previous year prior to that year or with reference to any amount of dividends declared or distributed by it during the previous year or any previous year prior to that year.

Explanation 3.—The amount of surtax in respect of the chargeable profits attributable to the manufacture or production of the articles referred to in sub-section (1) shall be an amount bearing to the total amount of surtax payable under the Companies (Profits) Surtax Act, 1964 the same proportion as the amount of such chargeable profits bears to the whole of the chargeable profits.

(2) The goods in respect of which a tax credit certificate shall be granted under sub-section (1) and the rate at which the amount of such certificate shall be calculated shall be such as may be specified in the scheme:

Provided that different rates may be specified in respect of different goods.

(3) In specifying the goods and the rates under sub-section (1), the Central Government shall have regard to the following factors, namely:—

(a) the need for stimulating industrial output;

(b) the need for financial assistance to industrial undertakings engaged in the manufacture or production of such goods;

(c) any other relevant factor.

(4) Where any undertaking begins, after the 1st day of April in the base year, to manufacture or produce any goods in respect of which a tax credit certificate may be granted under sub-section (1), the quantum of goods cleared in that year shall, for the purposes of that sub-section, be determined in such manner as may be provided in the scheme.

(5) The amount shown on a tax credit certificate granted to any person under the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on the certificate being produced before the Income-tax Officer, be adjusted against any existing liability of such person under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, or this Act, or any such liability arising within a period of twelve months from the date on which the certificate was produced before the Income-tax Officer and where the amount of such certificate exceeds such liability, or where there is no such liability, the excess or the whole of such amount, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter XIX, be deemed, on the date of the expiry of the said period of twelve months, to be refund due to such person under that Chapter and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly:

Provided that the adjustment or refund, as the case may be, under this sub-section shall be only for such amount, not exceeding the amount of the certificate, as is used within such period as may be specified in the scheme—

(i) for repayment of loans taken by the person from any of the financial institutions notified in this behalf by the Central Government, or

(ii) for the acquisition of any capital asset in India, including the construction of any building, for the purposes of his business, or

(iii) where the person is a company, also for redemption of its debentures.

(6) In this section—

(a) "base year", in relation to an existing undertaking which manufactures or produces the goods referred to in sub-section (1), means the financial year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1964 and in relation to any other undertaking, the financial year in which such undertaking begins to manufacture or produce such goods;

(b) "duty of excise" means the duty of excise leviable under the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944.

1 of 1944.

260ZE. (1) The Central Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, frame one or more scheme or schemes to be called tax credit certificate scheme or schemes in relation to tax credit certificates to be granted under this Chapter.

(2) A scheme framed under sub-section (1) may provide for—

(a) the form and manner in which, and the authority to which, applications for the grant of tax credit certificates shall be made;

(b) the form in which, and the intervals at which, and the authority by which, such certificates shall be issued;

(c) the verification of any information or particulars furnished, or contained in any application made, by or on behalf of any person entitled to tax credit certificates;

(d) the determination of the rights and obligations of a person to whom such certificate has been granted and the circumstances in which any right in or title to the said certificate may be transferred to or devolve on any other person by succession or otherwise;

(e) the determination of the rights and obligations of persons who jointly subscribe to an eligible issue of capital;

(f) the determination of the rights and obligations of persons who subscribe to an eligible issue of capital, on behalf, or for the benefit, of any other person;

(g) the appointment of any officer of Government or of the Reserve Bank of India to exercise any rights or perform any duties in connection with the grant of the said certificates;

(h) the goods or merchandise and the rate or rates for the purposes of section 280ZC and section 280ZD and the destination of the export of such goods or merchandise for the purposes of section 280ZC;

(i) any other matter which may be necessary or proper for the effective implementation of the provisions of this Chapter or the scheme.

(3) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, add to, amend, vary or rescind any scheme made under this section.

(4) Any scheme made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in any provision of the scheme or both Houses agree that any provision in the scheme should not be made, that provision of the scheme shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that provision.'

(i) the amount of rebate arrived at under the preceding proviso in the case of a company referred to in item I or item II of that proviso shall be reduced by the sum, if any, equal to the amount or the aggregate of the amounts, as the case may be, computed as hereunder:—

(a) on the aggregate of the sums computed in the manner provided in clause (i) of the second proviso to Paragraph D of Part II of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1964 as reduced by the amount, if any, which is deemed to have been taken into account, in accordance with clause (ii) of the said proviso, for the purpose of reducing the rebate mentioned in clause (i) of the said proviso to nil;

at the rate of 100 per cent.

5 of 1964.

(b) on the amount representing the face value of any bonus shares or the amount of any bonus issued to its shareholders during the previous year with a view to increasing the paid-up capital except where such bonus shares or bonus have been issued wholly out of the share premium account of the company after the 31st day of March, 1964;

and

at the rate of 12.5 per cent.

(c) in addition, in the case of—

(i) a company as is referred to in section 108 of the Income-tax Act, or

(ii) a company as is referred to in clause (iii) of sub-section (2) or sub-section (4) of section 104 of the said Act, or

(iii) such a company as is exempt from the operation of section 104 of the said Act by a notification issued under the provisions of sub-section (3) of that section, which has declared or distributed to its shareholders during the previous year any dividends other than dividends on preference shares—

(A) in the case of a company which since the date of the commencement of its activities has declared or distributed any dividends for the first time during the previous year or any one of the four previous years immediately preceding such previous year—on that part of the dividends other than dividends on preference shares which exceeds ten per cent. of the paid-up equity capital at the rate of 7.5 per cent.

(B) in any other case—on the whole amount of the dividends other than dividends on preference shares at the rate of 7½ per cent.;

(ii) where the sum arrived at in accordance with clause (i) of this proviso exceeds the amount of the rebate arrived at under the preceding proviso, only so much of the amounts of reduction mentioned in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) of clause (i) of this proviso as is sufficient, in that order, to reduce the rebate to nil shall be deemed to have been taken into account for the purpose:

Provided further that the income-tax payable by a company, as is referred to in section 108 of the Income-tax Act, and the total income of which exceeds Rs. 25,000, shall not exceed the aggregate of—

(a) the income-tax which would have been payable by the company if its total income had been Rs. 25,000 (the income of Rs. 25,000 for this purpose being computed as if such income included income from various sources in the same proportion as the total income of the company); and

(b) eighty per cent. of the amount by which its total income exceeds Rs. 25,000.

Explanation 1.—For the purposes of this Paragraph, a company shall be deemed to be mainly engaged in the business of generation or distribution of electricity or any other form of power or in the construction of ships or in the manufacture or processing of goods or in mining, if the income attributable to any of the aforesaid activities included in its total income for the previous year is not less than fifty-one per cent. of such total income.

Explanation 2.—For the purposes of this Paragraph, where a part of the income of a company is not included in its total income because it is agricultural income, the amount declared or distributed as dividends (other than dividends on preference shares), the amount representing the face value of any bonus shares and the amount of any bonus issued to its shareholders shall each be deemed to be such proportion thereof as the sum specified in clause (a) bears to the sum specified in clause (b), such sums being—

(a) the average amount of the total income of the company in the five previous years in which it has been in receipt of taxable income immediately preceding the relevant previous year;

(b) the average amount of the total profits and gains (excluding capital receipts) of the company for the five previous years referred to in clause (a) reduced by such allowances as may be admissible under the Income-tax Act but which have not been taken into account by the company in its profit and loss accounts for the said five previous years.

Explanation 3.—For the purpose of sub-clause (b) of clause (i) of the second proviso, "share premium account" means an account forming a separate and identifiable part of the reserves of a company to which has been transferred a sum equal to the aggregate amount or value of the premiums on shares issued by the company.

Explanation 4.—For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that where any dividends were declared by the company before the commencement of the previous year and are distributed by it during that year, no reduction in the rebate shall be made under sub-clause (b) of clause (i) of the second proviso in respect of such dividends.
